BIG ROADS' MEETING TO BE HELD AT UNIONTOWN JULY 29

Old National Pike Improvement to be Considered by Numerous Conferees

INTEREST BEING AROUSED

Beallsville the Scene of Organization Meeting Thursday Evening—Many Attend and Plan for Coming Conference.

Prominent citizens of Washington and Fayette counties met Thursday evening at Beallsville to discuss plans and arrangements for the big roads meeting that is to be held at the Summit House, near Uniontown, on Thursday, July 29, to promote interest in the improvement of the old National pike within the borders of Pennsylvania.

One of the greatest demonstrations in behalf of good roads that has ever occurred in Pennsylvania is expected. At the conference Thursday it was anounced at least 1,000 men and women of Fayette county would be present. Monongahela, Charleroi, Monwith Washington and Claysville will send big delegations while all smaller places and communities are certain to send a quota in proportion to their size.

West Virginia and Maryland are interested in the meeting. Frostburg and Cumberland, Md., alone will send from ten to twenty automobiles filled with boosters and Wheeling and vicinity will send a like number.

Following the conference in Beallsville Thursday it was stated that Judge J. M. Lowe, president of the National Old Trails Road association since its organization; Dr. Henry W. Temple of Washington; State Senator W. E. Crow of Uniontown; Judge R. W. Irwin of Washington; Robert Bruce, prominent road enthusiast and others would s peak. The meeting will open at 10:30 o'clock in the morning and Congressman R. F. Hopwood of the 23rd congressional district of Pennsylvania, will preside.

WILL BRING HOME YOUNG WOMAN HURT IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Mrs. Ralph T. Wheeler, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sample, Suffering From Fractured Skull.

Arrangements are being made to bring home Mrs. Ralph T. Wheeler from the state of California, where she was injured some tiemt ago while automobile riding with her husband and others. The automobile, which was driven by her husband went over an embankment, and she was the worst injured of the party. She sustained a fracture of the skull, which has produced local paralysis on the face and other injuries. Mrs. Wheeler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sample, of McKan avenue, and is a popular young woman.

BRAKEMAN HAS FOOT TAKEN OFF

B. F. Mendola Caught by Accident Under Train at Eighth Street

IS REMOVED TO HOSPITAL

His foot catching on a switch lamp when he attempted to board the engine of his train at the Eighth street railroad tower Thursday evening, B. F. Mendola, aged 21 years and single of Donora, had a foot taken off. He was removed to the Memorial hospital at Monongahela.

Mendola was employed as a brakeman having gone to work on the railroad but recently. He was attached to the crew with the shifting engine which was placing cars at Eighth street at about 5:30 o'clock when the accident happened. The engine was moving out. when he attempted to board it and the severed foot was the result.

SUPPOSED SUICIDE IS BLAMED ON ILL HEALTH

Paul Jones Resturant Keeper of Washington Ends His Life by Shooting.

Paul Jones, aged 44, proprietor of a Washington restaurant for the last nine years committed suicide Thursday evening in his home by shooting himself. He had planned to leave this week for Mole Hill, W. Va., to visit his mother, Mrs. Julia Jones. Worry over ill health and business is believed to have prompted the act. He leaves his wife and one son, besides four brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. Rose Werle of Pittsburg is visiting at the home of her son, Ed. Werle of Fallowfield avenue.

COUPONS FOR OUTING BEING PRINTED TODAY

Preparations for Big Newspaper Picnic at Eldora Park August 4 Under Way---Valley Press Association Taking Active Interest

Today the first coupons for the big valley outing to be held by the Monongahela Valley Press association at Eldora park on August 4 are being printed through the papers of the valley. They are for immediate clipping since every coupon will be good for some amusement. Watch for them.

Preparations for the event will be made as rapidly and entertainment will be arranged for a big outing. At Monongahela, Monessen, Charleroi and other points, the affair will partake of the nature of a big town outing for each and the newspapers will enact the role of hosts. But they will be guests too since the Eldora park management will entertain the newspaper men and their wives at the annual newspaper dinner at the park.

The Valley press association is made up of newspapers along the Monongahela valley with H. L. Lamb of the California Sentinel president, and H. E. Pirie of the Charleroi Mail as secretary-treasurer. Papers enrolled as members are the Fredericktown Chronicle, the Brownsville Clipper-Monitor, the California Sentinel, the Roscoe Ledger, the Fayette City Journal, the Belle Vernon Entrprise, the Charleroi Mail, the Charleroi Mirror, the Charleroi L' Union des Travailleurs, the Monessen News, the Monessen Independent the Monessen Friday Evening Call, the Donora American, the Monongahela Times, the Monongahela Republican, the New Eagle News and the Elizabeth Herald.

MONONGAHELA BEATS THE CHARLEROI TEAM IN RATHER EASY GAME

The Monongahela Independent baseball club came to Charleroi Thursday and went home with another of their numerous games tucked s afely away. Defeat of the Charleroi c lub was comparatively easy as it happened and the score was 6 to 0, the nearest Charleroi got to a score being t hird base.

Monongahela started scoring in the second inning, when Charles Davis got the first hit, first home run and score by dropping the horsehide prettily over the right field fence. In the fourth inning Monongahela scored two runs, largely through the instrumentality of Urben. This esteemed gentleman, who let it be proudly proclaimed lives in Charleroi, stepped to the plat and hit one deeply between left and center field for three bases. After Abbott was walked, Davis hit and Vic McGinty was given a base on a fielder's choice. Wilson doubled. Without talking any farther, Urben and Vic McKinty did the scoring. Both Abbott and Davis went down at second base. One run on two bases on balls and an error in right field meant a run for the visitors in the fifth inning and four singles caused two tallies in the seventh inning.

Charleroi in the fourth inning all but had a run, when with three on bases Bruckner, a catcher hailing from Northside, Pittsburg hit one over third. Unfortunately for all Charleroi the thing was declared a foul and that meant all other chances were lost.

Billy Kuhn acted as captain of the local team, which included six men f rom Charleroi, but who were good players. Score:

Charleroi ...0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0	3	2
Monongahela 0 1 0 2 1 0 2—6	8	1

Home run—Davis. Three base hit—Urben. Two base hit—Wilson. Struck out—By Miller 3, by Klinck 9. Bases on balls—off Miller 4, off Klinck 3. Hit by pitcher—Miller. Umpire—Adams.

Monessen in the Limelight In a News Way Over Thursday

JUVENILES ENTER STORE

Six Arrested for Alleged Misdeeds—Girl Paroled Recently From Morganza Apprehended at Grounds of Carnival Company.

Three good stories having to do with criminality broke at Monessen over Thursday.

In one Charles Douglas, alias William Douglas, was arrested by state police near Fairmont, W. Va., for the murder of Joseph Smith near Monessen recently. Douglas put up a hard fight and denied any knowledge of the crime. He will be taken before the next grand jury in Westmoreland county.

Another story concerned the breakage and entry into the Fifth Avenue Grocery store by a gang of boys between 7 and 10 years of age. Some of the lads are alleged to have broken into a five and ten cent store there recently. Six boys with their parents are to appear before a Justice of the Peace to answer the charges against them.

A third story is that of the apprehension of Miss Frances Robinson, aged 18 of Monessen at the grounds of the Sheesley Carnival c ompany at Brownsville. She recently was paroled from Morganza, but two weeks ago disappeared. According to her story told to the police Thursday night at Brownsville she joined the carnival in Pittsburg. The carnival people say she joined them in Connellsville.

CORRECT ATTITUDE

Something should be done locally in the way of law enforcement of traffic regulations on our streets and public roads leading into town, says the Monessen News. Apparently our police have relaxed in their enforcement of the traffic ordinance. Also the throwing open of Riverside road to Webster has induced the speed maniacs to make useless that three-mile stretch of improved road for the careful, conservative driver.

Judge Kunkle of Harrisburg took an absolutely correct attitude last week in sentencing to jail for three months a prisoner convicted of driving a jitney beyond the speed limit while intoxicated, when he said:

"We can't wait until someone is seriously injured by one who violates the law in driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated. Then it will be too late. The surer way to protect those who ride as well as those who walk in the streets from the violators of the law is to impose the penalty of the law."

This is good common sense. If the drivers of automobiles learn that the law is to be strictly enforced and that jail sentences are to be imposed for violations such as endanger the lives of their patrons or pedestrians, such practices as those which have been all too common lately will cease.

WORSHIP MID COOLING BREEZES

A Sunbury church has installed electric fans, which are kept buzzing and give comfort to the congregation during the progress of the services. It really seems strange that this has not been generally adopted long ago, says the Pottsville Republican.

If we go into a saloon we find electric fans to add to our comfort; if we go into an ice cream or soda water parlor we find the air cooled by the breeze from these electric fans; in our offices, in our places of amusement and in our homes we enjoy the electric fan, but for some reason or other it has never before become popular in the churches. Perhaps it is due to the church falling behind the times in so many things that it is found difficult to keep the edifice filled during the summer months.

There is no less religion in summer than in winter but the trouble has been that the churches have become places of physical torture as well as places of spiritual uplift.

So far no borough audit has been completed for the year 1914. Auditors assert they are not to blame, and it is a fact that they have been working since early in the year, as they have had a chance. The fiscal year closes the last of December. The purpose of publishing the borough audit is to give people a opportunity or comparison with previous years, but when it is not published until after half the year—or more—has gone, little of value is shown up in the compilations. If there is anything wrong with the present system of bookkeeping, or with the collection of taxes or preparation of reports, let's get it rectified.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A western senator remarked the other afternoon that some people mean well, but execute badly, and told a little anecdote about Smith as an illustration.

Smith attended a private theatrical performance one evening and at the conclusion of the entertainment he essayed to throw a bouquet at one of the women who took part.

"I want to congratulate you, madame," he effusively said. "You played splendidly. The part fits you to perfection."

"I am afraid not," was the blushful rejoinder of the other. "A young and pretty woman is needed for that part."

"You may think so, madame," beautifully blundered Smith, "but you have positively proved the contrary."

The following poem has been handed in by a reader of the "Picked up in Passing" column:

Who?

Who is it who always finds fault with the play
And says it's a pity, alas!
That the theatre, yes, sir! has seen its best day?
Why the man who goes in on a pass.

Who is it who always picks flaws in the church
And scoffs at its present estate?
"And where is the church-member free from a smirch?"
Why, the man who puts least in the plate.

Who is it who's ready to knife his own town
And talk of the much that it lacks?
"We need public spirit; no wonder we're down?"
Why the fellow who dodges his tax.

Who is it who rails at the government most,
And calls it a "deuce of a note"
That we have to be ruled by a dishonest host?
Why, the insect that won't even vote.

—Walter G. Doty.

AMONG THE THEATRES

MAJESTIC—CHARLEROI

Featured this week at the Majestic was a photoplay that was adapted from one of the famous George Ade stories, and the title of it was "The Slim Princess." Francis X. Bushman was presented in the leading role and made a big hit. His supporting cast was of such nature as to bring out the strong points of the play, in the best possible fashion. This picture was shown on Wednesday. On Tuesday evening, "Who Pays?" one of the twelve stories of life being presented weekly was shown. Each story is complete. Charles Chaplin was at the Majestic Thursday in "His New Profession," an Essanay production. On Saturday he will "play a return engagement." The tenth chapter of "The Diamond From the Sky" attracted the Thursday crowds and pleased them. Next week on Monday will be produced "Who's Who in Society," and "Sins of Mother" in five parts will be shown on Wednesday.

PALACE—CHARLEROI

One of Chaplin's best comedies, "Work," with the inimitable and indisputably foolish Charlie Chaplin in the leading role was one of the headliners at the Palace theatre during this week, it being produced to good sized audiences on Tuesday evening. On Wednesday "The Boss" was a Schubert feature that was highly recommended and holding interest with it was the production, "The Wives of Men." On Thursday the photoplay presentation was the three part special Lubin drama, "The Life Line." The vaudeville program at the Palace for the last three days of the week is good. Wilson and Vaughn are appearing in a refined comedy and talking act, using special scenery. Heagie and Walton have an uproarious one-act comedy "Does He Drink," and Elizabeth War appears in her role of character comedienne and singing girl.

COYLE—CHARLEROI

Manager R. S. Coyle at the Coyle theatre this week presented one of the best summer programs of plays it would be possible to produce anywhere. He started on Monday with Jane Cowl in the play "The Garden of Lies," a big Broadway feature production. Then on Tuesday he had the famous Marguerite Clark in the play "The Pretty Sister of Jose," one of the Paramount attractions. Wednesday's feature was Mary Miles Minter in the splendid drama. "Always in the Way," a Metro production. John Mason, who perhaps is as famous a movie player as any of the notables appeared in the play "Jim, the Penman," a Paramount piece on Thursday. Friday's attraction is Bessie Barriscale, in "The Reward," a Mutual masterpiece and Saturday, "Rosemary Theby", "The Cheval Mystery." Manager Coyle was enabled to present the wonderful program that he did simply by making things work right. He filled in with a number of other pictures rightly that were selected with greatest care.

Slav Farmers.

The total number of Slavish farm operators in the United States, composed chiefly of Poles, Bohemians and Slovaks, will largely exceed one hundred thousand. This statement by an investigator of the bureau of immigration will surprise those who, though aware that the Slav newcomer has generally been reared on the small farms of Europe, are familiar with him only as an unskilled laborer. What is more, it is believed that the Slovak farmers in Arkansas, the Bohemians in Texas—a widely scattered colony of over fifty thousand—and the Slovaks of southern Virginia, should increasingly act as a magnet to draw to American lands the thousands of immigrants who return yearly to invest their money at $400 the acre in their fatherlands. Concerning both the ability of the Slavs to farm intelligently and their worth as citizens the report of the bureau leaves no doubt.—New York Evening Post.

Lung Trouble Yielded to This Medicine

If you are suffering with serious lung trouble, it will pay to fully investigate Eckman's Alterative, a remedy which has caused many recoveries. One follows:—

8323 Girard Ave., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen:—In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia, and later by Lung Trouble. In the winter of 1904 I had a cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff, and later I had many hemorrhages, at one time three in three successive days. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well." (Abbreviated.)

(Affidavit) ANNIE F. LOUGHRAN.

Eckman's Alterative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and up-building the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitute. Small size, $1; regular size, $2. Sold by leading druggists. Write for booklet of recoveries.

A Modern Regulus.

There are some bright rays to illuminate the darkness, despair and desolation of the war. It is related in the dispatches that a Frenchman in prison in Germany, learning that his mother was dying, wrote to the emperor begging leave to go to her bedside and pledging his honor that he would return to Germany by the first of March. The kaiser at once gave orders for the release of the prisoner on the terms he proposed. The Frenchman departed and was with his mother when she died, and then he kept faith and went back to his prison. It is pleasant to see that the kaiser in the midst of the vast responsibility and toil with which he is charged takes time and thought for such acts of mercy and human kindness as this.—Baltimore Sun.

Fires From Carelessness.

As a sensible contribution to the literature of the cigarette as a starter of fires, big and little, let us recommend the following, from the Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin: "The announcemen that a recent $700,000 fire was due to the dropping of a cigarette into a rubbish heap is not so severe a condemnation of the despised 'coffin-nail' as of the man who smoked it. It is quite likely that the man who is careless enough to drop a lighted cigarette where it may cause a fire would be careless enough in some other respect to cause a fire or some other damage.—Rochester Union and Advertiser.

Apt Quotation.

Shakespearian quotations are in great favor with Mr. Joseph H. Choate, but he uses them only when they are apposite. A hit which he scored in the Cesnola trial is illustrative of this. Clarence Cook, the art critic, had given testimony unfavorable to General Cesnola, whom Mr. Choate was defending. Something was developed on the cross-examination that materially weakened the statements made by the witness, whereupon Mr. Choate turned, his countenance expressive of well-assumed indignation, and, pointing his finger at Mr. Cook, said, dramatically:

"False, fleeting, perjured Clarence!"
